CHRIST CHURCH, at Alexandria, Va., was attended by President Washington and his pew is preserved as it appeared when it was occupied by the family. A neighboring pew bears the name plate of Robert E. Lee.
The Church was built in 1773.

*Don't forget to tell us how you like
your new home.
It will be glad to hear from you any time. Don't know your address
but think this will reach you. We will not forget to visit you in Williamsport. Gail
wants his papa to move there. Fri. and Sat.
have been almost perfect wish you could have had such days while you were here.*
